THE RICHLAND TIMES

NOVEMBER 2021

WRITTEN BY RICHLAND ELEMENTARY THIRD GRADE STUDENTS

MEET THE NEWSPAPER STAFF

Kit Matthew, third grader in Mrs. Reese's class, wanted to start a school newspaper to share what happens at Richland. He recruited several classmates and interviewed Gary Weckselblatt, QCSD Director of Communications, who shared his advice.

NEW VOICES AT RICHLAND

Playing Instruments at Richland
By Blessing

When you are in third grade, you can start string lessons. In fourth grade, you can keep doing string lessons or you can take band lessons. We have Mrs. D. and Mr. M. You can keep going with lessons every year. If you want to learn an instrument, come to Richland!

Richland As A Newcomer
By Kit Matthew

If you are new to Richland, you're not the only one. But do not get nervous. Transition is a good thing. New B.F.F.s, fun teachers, and many more.

Richland is Fun
By Jose

This school is fun! You can make friends and you can play. You can play outside on two playgrounds and go on the swings and slides. That's why this school is fun.

What It's Like to Go to Richland
By Sofia

Going to Richland is amazing. Every holiday gets a party. You get two recesses up to fifth grade. It's great for all kids. Everyone is so nice to new kids and everyone else.

FALL HAPPENINGS

Red Ribbon Week
By Aubrie

One week before Halloween, we have Red Ribbon Week to say no to drugs and bullying. On Monday we wore red. On Tuesday it was crazy socks and hair. Wednesday was spirit day, and we wore Richland colors. Thursday was wear your p.j.s and Friday we wore Halloween costumes for our Halloween party.

Richland Lollipop Sale
By Addison

On October 29 Richland Elementary School had a lollipop sale. There were a lot of different kinds of lollipops and they cost 50 cents. They had different faces. Some were skeletons, bats, and witches. They were hard and sweet! The student Lighthouse team sold them to raise money to buy playground equipment.

Pizza Fundraiser
By Izzy

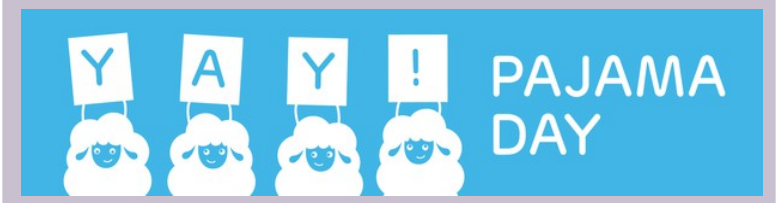
The pizza fundraiser was one of my favorite fundraisers! My teacher, Mrs. Reese would love it because she loves pizza. Pizza pick up was on Halloween. I saw Richie the Panther. Also, the awesome principal was there.

RICHLAND LEADERSHIP

Leader in Me
By Cailyn

At Richland we have leader tickets to celebrate the leader in each of us. To get tickets, you show how you live the 7 habits. Be proactive, put first things first, begin with the end in mind, think win-win, seek first to understand then to be understood, synergize, and sharpen the saw.

CHOP Pajama Day Fundraiser
By Emma



On December 3rd, there is a CHOP Fundraiser called Pajama Day. You can donate online or bring in money to Richland Elementary School. You can wear your pajamas and also get CHOP stickers. This is our chance to help others.

Here is how you can donate online.

Richland has lots of fundraisers and more are coming soon!
